DO YOU HAVE ANY CHILDREN IN YOUR CARE? (By 'children' we mean anyone under 24 (and anyone under 25, if your study start date is before 1 January 2009) who lives with you at least 50% of the time and who you support - this can include stepchildren, children at boarding school, adopted or whangai children, grandchildren or mokopuna. It doesn't include any children who are on a Student Allowance or Work and Income benefit, or earn more than $80 a week before tax, or anyone who you are being paid a Work and Income Orphans or Unsupported Childs Benefit for. Please note: this definition is different from that of the Unemployment Benefit Student Hardship.) Yes No If yes, please give their details: Date child came Child's full Name Date of Birth Office use only into your care We'll need to see their birth certificates. MARITAL STATUS ARE YOU: Single/Separated Legally married In a de facto relationship Civil Union Start Date: This is the date your current marital status started eg: if you are single and have never been married/de facto/civil union then enter your date of birth. 8 0 0 | 1 1 Year Day Month For the Student Allowance, if you are legally married, in a civil union or in a de facto relationship without children in your care, and either you or your partner are under 24*, you will be assessed as single for Student Allowance purposes. If you and your partner are 24* or over, or you have children in your care, your partner must fill in a Partner's form. Are you or your partner under 24*?
